

CORRECT AVERAGES OF MAJOR LEAGUES

NEWS OF ALL BRANCHES OF SPORT

EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN

FLOOY

It Would Require a Lot of Exertion to Change HIS Mind,

BY VIC

MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS

Compiled by Expert George L. Moreland.

Table of National League Batting Averages for various players.

Table of American League Batting Averages for various players.

Table of Club Fielding Records for various teams.

Table of Ten Leading Base Stealers for various players.

Table of Ten Leading Run Getters for various players.

MARQUARD'S FINAL WORKOUT NETS DONLIN A HOMER

After Five Innings Rube Is Relieved of Pitching Job by Drucke.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—The farewell games of the Boston Red Sox were played at the Polo Grounds this afternoon before an undisturbed crowd.

Neither team was able to score in the first inning. For Boston Sweeney went out on a grounder to Devlin, Donlin was thrown out by Wilson and Fletcher tossed out Kipe.

The Giants failed to score in their half, Marquard struck out Miller to break the tie.

There was nothing doing for the Giants in their half. Becker did not get a hit.

There was nothing doing for the Giants in their half. Becker did not get a hit.

BIG COLLEGE TEAMS HAVE HARD TIME BEATING RIVALS

All the big eleven got down to business today. The Tigers smothered Villanova by a score of 31 to 0.

The third period, Harvard had her troubles with Holy Cross. The best the Crimson could do after strenuous playing was a score of 8 to 0.

TIGERS MET VILLANOVA WITHOUT WHITE AT END.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 7.—The Tiger Eleven measured her strength on University Field this afternoon against the strong hand of gridiron warriors from Villanova.

The field is soggy from recent rains which checks the speed of the swift Princeton backs and will doubtless keep the score lower than that of last year.

PENNSY OUT TO EVEN THINGS WITH URSINUS.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 7.—Revenue with a vengeance Penn State's motto this afternoon at Franklin Field and the Ursinus College football team was the object upon which the Red and Blue warriors concentrated their efforts.

CORNEL'S REGULAR TEAM OPPOSED OBERLIN TO-DAY.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Cornell took on Oberlin this afternoon for the third

DIFFERIN PARK ENTRIES.

DUFFERIN PARK, Oct. 7.—The entries for Monday are as follows: FIRST RACE—Four and one-half furlongs...

PIMLICO ENTRIES.

PIMLICO RACE TRACK, Oct. 7.—The entries for Monday are as follows: FIRST RACE—Four and one-half furlongs...

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW YORK'S LEADING THEATRES: EMPIRE, THE GAY WIDOWS, JOHN DREW IN A SINGLE MAN, FRANK MCINTYRE IN SNOBS, I HE HARRIS, ROSESTAIL, KNIGHTBROKER, DONALD BRIDGES, CRITERION, LYCEUM, THE ARAB, NEW AMSTERDAM, LIBERTY, JULIAN ELTINGE, GAIL'S, EXCUSE ME, JOHN WEBER'S, EDWARD BRESE, DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, HAMMERSTEIN'S, THE SUCCESS OF HIS CAREER, COHAN, GRAND BLANCHE BATES, REPUBLIC, THE WOMAN, BLASCO, THE CONCERT, ASTOR, WHAT THE DOCTOR ORDERED, WALLACK'S, ARKLISS, COLONIAL, ALHAMBRA, BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS, EMPIRE.

CADETS VS. VERMONT ON MUDDY FIELD.

WEST POINT, Oct. 7.—West Point started its football season today with the first game of mud and a wet, slippery ball to handle.

N. Y. UNION OPPOSED MUHLENBERG IN 1ST. GAME.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY, Oct. 7.—The Tiger Eleven measured her strength on University Field this afternoon against the strong hand of gridiron warriors from Villanova.

HARVARD SCORED EARLY ON FORWARD PASSES.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 7.—The Tiger Eleven measured her strength on University Field this afternoon against the strong hand of gridiron warriors from Villanova.

SYRACUSE HELD YALE DOWN IN FIRST HALF.

YALE, Conn., Oct. 7.—Syracuse held Yale down in the first half of the game today.

LOUISVILLE ENTRIES.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7.—The entries for Monday are as follows: FIRST RACE—Four and one-half furlongs...

MITCHELL THE TAILOR 40TH ST. AND BROADWAY